

CATALOG
2018

ENROUTE

ENROUTEBOOKSANDMEDIA.COM

SUMMA 365

Read the Summa Theologica in One Year

$14.99 per volume

$7.00 ebook

Get it for free in your email – one section a day for 365 days.

Sign up at summa365.com

In Memorize the Mass! Dr. Vost applies the powerful methods of the Catholic art of memory once more to all the parts and rites of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, both in the Novus Ordo or Ordinary Form and in the Extraordinary Form or Traditional Latin Mass. Readers will learn not merely how to memorize facts and repeat them like a parrot, but to come to know the names, the sequence, and the meanings of both forms of the Roman Rite of the Mass like a rational human being made in God's image and likeness with an intellect and a will, and they will learn to engrave each and every one of those rites upon the tablets of their hearts, knowing them literally forward and backward! Do you want to know and love the Mass as if your life depended on it? (For in a real sense, it sure does for us all!) Then open up Memorize the Mass! and begin to participate in the celebration of Christ's Real Presence before us in a way you may not have imagined before.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $16.95 | Hardcover: $27.95

Discover the rewards of uniting two of the Catholic Church's most beloved devotions. In this new booklet, Shane Kapler provides 20 reflections demonstrating the riches that flow from interspersing our praying of the decades of the Rosary with the Divine Mercy Chaplet. By marrying the two together in this way, the mysteries of the Rosary reveal the Cross's relationship to every aspect of our Lord's life, and the Chaplet becomes a means for joining Mary at the foot of her Son's Cross and invoking God's mercy upon ourselves and our world.

eBook: $3.99 | Paperback: $11.95 | Hardcover: $18.95

The Magisterium of the Catholic Church teaches that Mary, the Mother of God, is a grace-filled, flesh and blood woman, who unsurpassingly loves each of us by name. Mary, the Beloved, affirms that teaching, providing a theological and philosophical portraiture of our Heavenly Mother that plunges both heart and intellect deeply into her mystery. It's not simply to teach doctrine that this book was written, but to introduce the reader to a real Lady who will fill their hearts.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $16.95 | Hardcover: $27.95

Dr. Peter Redpath

A NOT-SO-ELEMENTARY
CHRISTIAN METAPHYSICS

Volume 1

DR. PETER REDPATH
ENROUTE

This book's chief aim is novel and radical: to reunite philosophy, science, and wisdom (which had initially been separated several centuries ago by René Descartes) through a synthesis of two new interpretations, one of the nature of ancient Greek philosophy and science, and, two, of the metaphysical teachings of St. Thomas Aquinas about philosophy and science.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $19.99 | Hardcover: $32.99

A NOT-SO-ELEMENTARY
CHRISTIAN METAPHYSICS
An Introduction to Ragamuffin Thomism

Volume 2

DR. PETER REDPATH
ENROUTE

Nothing short of a metaphysical disturbance and metaphysical revolution of the highest order can resolve the West's and the world's current cultural, political, and civilizational problems. Dr. Redpath's contribution to resolving this metaphysical crisis has been chiefly to add to the vision of his mentors the dimension that the only way to reunite science and wisdom is through uniting philosophy and science, and the only way to reunite philosophy and science is through a new interpretation of Western intellectual history, especially that of the nature of ancient philosophy and of the teachings of St. Thomas. In this second volume, he has sought chiefly to consider essential implications regarding the nature of the reunion between philosophy and science and the teachings of St. Thomas.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $19.99 | Hardcover: $32.99

THE MORAL PSYCHOLOGY OF ST. THOMAS AQUINAS
An Introduction to Ragamuffin Ethics

DR. PETER REDPATH

Through a radical reinterpretation of classical philosophy as an organizational psychology, The Moral Psychology of St. Thomas: An Introduction to Ragamuffin Ethics just as radically reinterprets St. Thomas Aquinas's moral teaching to be a behavioristic psychology chiefly designed to synthesize right reason and right pleasure to help a person excel at living life as a whole. In the process of so doing, this work demonstrates how the skill of prudential living is a necessary condition for becoming a grand master of leadership in any and every profession.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $43.99 | Hardcover: $64.99

For the past several decades, there has been a notable rise in claims of apparitions, visions and messages from heaven. This growth has often led to confusion and sensationalism among the Catholic faithful. Refractions of Light: 201 Answers on Apparitions, Visions and the Catholic Church seeks to address this situation using an easy-to-read Q&A format designed for a broad audience. It does not shy away from controversial topics, reaching into the relevant Church documents, which it includes in its appendices, to address them. Kevin Symonds' book is a must-read for anyone seeking to understand how we come to know when heaven is reaching out to us.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $16.99

Atheism is in revival. Many in the 21st Century lack a belief in a supernatural Creator. This requires an emboldened response from those who also live by faith, doing what God has called them to do, and not through their five senses alone (2 Corinthians 5:7). As Pope Benedict XVI said in his January 9, 2013, audience, "The event of the Incarnation, of God who became man, like us, shows us the daring realism of divine love." Those of us who 'see' that daring realism are called to share it with others, and that is the idea behind this book called Catholic Realism. As Catholics, we can share a response based on revelation and interpreted by the Magisterium, but that will not satisfy the atheist. A philosophical response is a necessary pre-evangelization tool. This book is designed to assist the everyday evangelist in developing such a tool.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $14.99

This is Dr. Suzanne Jamail's private journal, written during a difficult period of her life. The economy was poor, business was slow. The recession ravaged her private practice as a clinical psychologist. Thrown overboard into a sea of unknown, unstable, and unrest, she was plagued with thoughts of "going under" but in her heart, she believed her situation would turn around. In 2013, her office building finally sold. It was located in Flint, Michigan, the crime capital of the United States. It sold for the price of a fully loaded compact car. The financial loss only served to fuel the tidal wave of disempowering thoughts that tormented her. Giving up wasn't an option while it frequently crossed her mind. Surely heaven understood her condition. So, she decided to say yes to life expecting God's favor to lift her above her personal challenges.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $14.95 | Hardcover: $18.95

In the past the word grief was used only to describe the sorrow of loss through death. Nowadays pain coming from other kinds of losses such as rejection and divorce are also seen to involve grieving. Even though Weeping with Jesus is not designed to help with such forms of grief, what you read could help you encounter the personal love of Jesus for you in any kind of heartbreak.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $14.99

The Bereavement Miracles program was designed to play a quintessential role in evangelizing the “spirit of mission” to individuals who are suffering from the death of a loved one by relating eternal realities in a systematic program/ approach that integrates understanding of human sorrow to the nature of divine love and renewal

Paperback: $16.99

Dr. Ronda Chervin's Healing of Rejection with the Help of the Lord: A Survivor's Guide was written to help others move out of the disordered bondings that so often accompany rejection. The reader will come to know six people indulging in seemingly harmless fantasies; suffering the anxieties that come when they want more from others than anyone can deliver; and then experiencing despair when relationships capsize. Only when Dr. Ronda's heroes and heroines surrender to God will the temptations to disordered cycles will be overcome and real tender love, sustained by ongoing forgiveness, will be the victor.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $14.99

How to Flourish in a Fallen World, by Donald DeMarco, engages the reader in an understanding of our common human nature and the problems it faces in a culture that actively pursues, to put it in Saint John Paul II's terms, a freedom of indifference over a freedom for excellence. Dr. DeMarco's conclusion is a simple one: "We can flourish in a fallen world by taking advantage of the many gifts that are available to us while living within the truth of our being." In a world of complex problems, it is refreshing to know that such a simple solution is available to us – we merely have to live the truth in love, and we'll find that we restore by so doing mankind to his proper state.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $16.99

This book is a story of the unfolding triumph of Christian happiness as a philosophy of life – from its' ancient Greek roots and principles in "the master of those who know" - Aristotle, through its medieval flourishing in the sparkling syntheses of the Angelic Doctor, St. Thomas Aquinas, to the application of the Dominican saint's penetrating vision to leisure and worship by a prominent twentieth century Thomist pilgrim, Josef Pieper. Pope John Paul II's encyclicals continue the threads in this little tapestry of reason redeemed, offered for today's Christian in the heart of the world.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $14.95

This book illustrates how ten different factors can improve our appreciation of life: Evolution prepares it, Meaning justifies it, Love enhances it, Truth directs it, Freedom crowns it, Virtue strengthens it, Sexuality promotes it, Marriage shelters it, Gratitude honors it, and Christmas celebrates it.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $17.95

Spirituality for All Times is offered in the hope that it will inspire those who seek a deeper union with God. The authors have chosen to offer short selections to enable the reader to wade in from the shallow end of the pool, so to speak, until they are comfortable enough to take their feet off the bottom and swim toward the deeper end – someday reading whole books by the same writers. A brief review of the table of contents will convey to the reader a specific concept underlying Catholic spirituality: one size doesn't fit all!

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $19.99

En Route Books and Media has reprinted Ronda Chervin and Lois Janis' book Voyage to Insight with fresh, exciting graphics. Seeking truth but not sure where it is? Or you have a philosophy of life but you're not sure how to convey it to others? Voyage to Insight provides a creative and insightful way to reach your goal. In an extended analogy to a sea voyage, you will learn about how different thinkers think about the Captain of the Ship (the human person); Navigating with logic, experience, or faith; the Shipwreck of skepticism and despair; the Sun of God and the Enchanted Islands of beauty, love and mysticism. Finally, you get to work out your ethics on a Utopian Island!

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $18.99

A reprint of Dr. Ronda's The Way of Love: The Battle for Inner Transformation, this new edition under a new subtitle puts back in front of the world the nature of human love alongside human passion as told from the perspective of a woman who has deeply experienced both. All of us hope that others think of us as loving persons. But do we really have nothing but love in our hearts: how about anger, anxiety, despair, annoyance, the blahs...? Learn from Dr. Ronda's The Way of Love how to understand different types of love, how to overcome obstacles to love with the grace of God, and how to make loving moral decisions. Respond to the challenge of becoming more loving day by day as a spiritual marathon runner.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $18.95

The reciprocal relationship between faith and reason has been a constant theme in Catholic intellectual history, and it explains why the Catholic intellectual tradition is so rich, strong and full, perhaps unlike anything else in the world. In his famous Regensburg address and elsewhere, Pope Benedict XVI stressed the perennial relevance of Pope John Paul II's encyclical Fides et Ratio (Faith and Reason) and the need for Faith to purify Reason, and for Reason to purify Faith. The question is how to make this happen and why it has become necessary more than ever to stress their connection and mutual relevance. Let this book be your guide in answering the many questions you might have.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $18.95

As with every great philosopher and theologian, the thought of St. Thomas Aquinas, though perhaps the clearest expressed of all, has inevitably been subject to a variety of interpretations. There is one interpretation that leans to a naturalist/rationalist (secularist) interpretation of his thought. That one is well-recognized today. There is, however, another interpretation so strongly opposed to this extreme that it tends to fall into the other error of supernaturalism/fideism. In this book, hopefully following not only the thought of St. Thomas but also his method, the author has tried only to draw particular attention to this latter error.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $19.95

This is a book on what is perhaps the most burning and urgent of social issues of our times, namely, the relationship between the science of Economics and Ethics. It demonstrates that the modern view has reversed the true relationship and that it is a mistake of enormous practical significance, not unrelated to the vicissitudes that the modern economy has experienced in the past and, now worldwide, is undergoing at the present time. To regain the proper perspective on the relationship, we need to recover the practical wisdom of two of the geniuses of Ethics in the history of that study: Aristotle and St. Thomas Aquinas.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $17.95

Today, many specializations within the field of political science identify it particularly as a social science, and these are namely political theory, government and politics, comparative politics, international relations, political economy, public administration, and public policy. This text book, which has a special emphasis on US politics, introduces students to the study of politics as a social science according to these categories, integrating into its introduction a philosophical dimension resonant with our Catholic faith.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $19.99

This book traces the history of East and South East Asia from ancient times to modern times. In the process, the reader is introduced to the various cultures, philosophies and religions from these two regions of Asia. Throughout the journey, continual reference is made to Catholic thought that is centered on Jesus who was born of a Western Asian woman, Mary.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $19.99

East and South East Asian History studies the historical development of countries that make up East Asia (China, Taiwan, Japan, Mongolia, North Korea, South Korea) and countries that make up South East Asia (Vietnam, Cambodia, Brunei, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Myanmar, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, East Timor). Although each of these countries and each region has a unique identity, they also share common philosophies, customs, and practices. To bring out what the countries participate in common, we will study them together while respecting their uniqueness. We begin with Asian pre-history and conclude with modern East Asia.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $19.99

Catholic Church History: Pre-Christian to Modern Times presents how the Catholic Church developed in time, from her earliest days up until modern times. Repeatedly the reader will encounter Christ's mystical presence extended through time by the Church as His body. The various aspects of the Church, such as prefigured, persecuted, mother, teacher, shepherd, and prophet, all are touched upon as the reader reads the Church's history. While presenting the Church in her full splendor and holiness in her pilgrim state on earth, borrowing words from the International Theological Commission, her "maternal solidarity" as she "assum[es] the weight of her children's faults in maternal solidarity" are also discussed.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $19.99

Western Civilization from Prehistorical Times to the Protestant Reformation demonstrates how Western Civilization owes a debt of gratitude to three ancient civilizations: Jewish, Greek and Roman. The first half of this book studies each of these civilizations to show how they contributed to western belief, thought, and practice. The second half begins with early Christianity and ends with the fragmentation of the West in the 1300s-1500s.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $19.99

Western Civilization from the End of the Renaissance to Modern Times presents the history of Western Civilization from the end of the Renaissance to Modern and the so-called Post-Modern Times. Topics include the limiting of monarchies, the development of western science, revolutions (political and other), nationalism, imperialism, totalitarianism and other isms, World Wars, the Cold War, Post-Modernism, and the present multi-centric world. Integrated within these topics are selections and discussions of artistic/cultural expressions that represent these various times.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $19.99

Marian Devotion and Theology surveys the historical development by the Holy Spirit through the Church of Marian belief and devotion. How Mary was prepared and foreshadowed in the Old Testament is followed by her presence on earth as revealed in the New Testament. Then, the development of Marian doctrines and devotional practices is systematically presented. We begin by studying the early development of Marian theology in the Patristic age, which was followed by the Medieval flowering of Marian theology. Ecclesial discussions on Marian doctrine shortly before, during and after the Second Vatican Council are also presented. The subsequent three chapters focus on Marian doctrines in relationship to heresy and ecclesiology. The book ends by applying Marian belief to practice of the Catholic faith and with an appreciative gaze on Marian apparitions.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $19.99

For several decades, there has been much discussion on the famous third part of the secret of Fátima. Kevin J. Symonds has performed some groundbreaking research on the matter in his latest book On the Third Part of the Secret of Fátima. In this centennial year of Fátima, many of the faithful are renewing their interest in or discovering for the first time the message of Our Lady of Fátima. On the Third Part of the Secret of Fátima is not an introductory book, but will be an excellent source for people already familiar with the topic.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $35.00

Catholic Apologetics teaches a budding apologist how to effectively witness to and defend the faith. We begin with a presentation of virtues an apologist is to embody, which includes both moral and intellectual virtues. The reader is taught how to use basic logic, rational argumentation, and non-rational argumentation to further the Good News of Jesus Christ. Apologetic topics that are presented include God's existence, the presence of evil, faith and science, Christ's divinity and resurrection, sola scriptura, the Eucharist, the Papacy, the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Communion of Saints, Mormonism, Hinduism, Buddhism and Islam.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $19.99

The vocation to the priesthood does not simply entail doing specific actions that only priests can perform. Being a priest essentially means being grounded in a unique identity, participating in the headship of Christ. More specifically, this means priests are to understand themselves in a relational way, as fathers, brothers, bridegrooms, and disciples. This book presents a relational understanding of the priesthood in two parts. Part one reflects on the mystery of the priesthood from the perspective of father. Part two reflects on the priesthood from the viewpoint of bridegroom. In these sections, what Revelation teaches regarding priests as fathers, brothers, bridegrooms and disciples is presented and clarified by Catholic wisdom throughout the ages, including from modern times.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $19.99

International priests have served the Roman Catholic Church in the United States since its inception. With congregations consisting largely of immigrants or Spanish and French speaking Catholics absorbed by the expansion of US territory, it was only natural that the clergy reflected the remarkable mixture of ethnicities in the Church. New communities lacked the 'home-grown' vocations of more established communities, and the nascent Church needed to recruit or welcome priests and religious from other countries and cultures. It is for these priests and their missionary zeal that this book came to be.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $22.99

St. Paul prays with ardent desire that “the eyes of our understanding would be enlightened, that we might know what is the hope of the risen Jesus’ calling, and what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance” (Eph 1:18). This book contains glimpses of the riches of God’s glory. Seminarians offer a brief understanding of foundations in Christian Spirituality while reflecting upon selected topics in Fr. Xavier Leon-Du Four’s seminal work entitled Dictionary of Biblical Theology. Through the art of sharing witness stories, the truth and beauty of Jesus’ active loving is unveiled, and we are invited to see with new eyes.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $14.95

I was spiritually dead, despite all the things I was doing with my life. I don't think there's a worse death that can happen to any human being. Now I have a Life beyond my dreams. Full of Miracles, Poetry, and Locutions. This book demonstrates how you can experience this, too!

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $14.95

Is bioethics a technical specialization or a profound expression of human being? Wonderfully answering this question, the book is beautifully enriched by eight Forewords. Beginning again and again, Etheredge searches old and new sources that help us to understand who we are: both personally and objectively – gazing into the mysterious depths of human personhood. Why are we “from” relationship, “in” relationship and “for” relationship? He then goes on to explore the specific difficulties that make it urgent that we formally recognize that the gift of human being founds our equal dignity before God and each other.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $35.00

Education is foundational to the development of souls. 99 Ways to Teach Like the Master is a journey into the instructive techniques of Jesus. By learning from the Master, we can learn better how to communicate and impart knowledge to others. Whether it is for the teacher of a small classroom, a large symposium, or a home school parent, T.J.'s insight into the teaching style of Christ is one of a kind and proves to be a useful resource to any teacher.

eBook: $8.99 | Paperback: $11.99

Raising Kids with a Healthy Body Image: A Guide for Catholic Parents is the unique approach to the body image crisis that impacts many children. From a young age, our kids are under immense pressure from a variety of sources that can determine the value of their bodies. But God has something to say about this as well. Pope John Paul II's wonderful teaching known as Theology of the Body is the book's guiding force, and along with Scripture and the Church's Sacraments, this book is an excellent parenting tool to guide your child so they see the worth of their bodies as designed by our Creator. In addition, this book discusses the numerous causes of a poor body image and includes chapters on how to instill fitness and sound nutrition into your family life.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $16.95

Author Francis Canavan S.J.'s appeal extends well beyond the intelligentsia. For more than twenty-five years, he contributed to the catholic eye newsletter, making his wisdom accessible to the ordinary person in the pew. Fun Is Not Enough collects all the prophetic insights catholic eye readers loved, so that Canavan may inspire a new generation with his contributions to contemporary debates on religious and political liberty, the dignity of human life, and the nature of marriage.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $14.95

Healing Meditations from the Gospel of St. John is about recovering who we are . . . our true selves. Simply put, the true self is the self that God wants us to be, what Kierkegaard called God's prophesy for each person, gifts, potentialities, feelings . . . all that our

Paperback: $9.99

Seeking Christ in the Crosses & Joys of Aging is a refreshing and inspiring look at a period of your life 'en route to eternity' where Jesus awaits you in a new way. A perfect gift also for family and friends as they turn 60

Paperback: $9.99

Reading the Joy Luck Club by Amy Tan, Ronda was moved by the 'everywoman' quality of that montage of memoirs of Chinese-American women. Years later, while patching together a quilt for her bed and thinking about how the quilting bee had become a literary symbol, suddenly the two images came together. Why not assemble a book of memoirs of women she knew, using squares of fabric as the device? She would invite friends of many backgrounds to let the memory of particular pieces of fabric call up the feelings they had about incidents in the different stages of their lives. This book is just that kind of literary quilt.

Paperback: $9.99

From the journals of Ronda De Sola Chervin (written between 1977-1996), this autobiographical book explores a life of love and loss from a widow, mother, grandmother, professor of philosophy and theology, an international speaker and author of some forty-five books (at the time of writing) about Catholic living.

Paperback: $9.99

Five steps to help people overcome uncontrolled or over-reactive anger. Steps include admitting being angry person: identifying the anger: physical, psychological and spiritual perspectives about causes of the bad kind of anger: dealing with anger day by day: and letting Jesus bring the lion to lie down with the lamb. (workbook – 59 pp.)

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $15.00

These memorable quotes of the saints and hundreds more are uniquely organized by theme in this uplifting treasury. In each chapter, you follow a particular theme and journey with the saints as they provide just the right word of wisdom or encouragement in wrestling with doubt and triumph in faith – in experiencing a range of emotion, including sadness and joy, anger and peace, courage and fear. Brief introductions to each chapter provide a couple of stories from the lives of saints that model the journey for us. Quotable Saints is an inspiring treasury for devotional reading and an invaluable reference for teachers and pastors, at home or in the office.

Paperback: $9.99

Miscarriage, depression, breast cancer, abuse, divorce, addiction, and other specific personal, chronic problems touch the lives of many Catholic women. While expert advice is plentiful, what so many women want is not the words of professionals but the comfort that comes from knowing that someone else has suffered the same struggles and has been able to find God in the midst of the storm. Holding Hands with God provides that comfort. A compilation of stories about pain and redemption, this is a woman-to-woman approach of personal witness. Each of the contributors shares the painful realities of her life, but she shares more than that: she shares the ways God has reached her to give new insights into the nature of her cross and to provide her with comfort, acceptance, and peace. These inspiring stories from women of all ages and all walks of life are sure to encourage you to brave your own suffering by 'holding hands with God' in the darkness.

Paperback: $9.99

Reporting Catholic news as it happens, when it happens, and before it happens, Eye of the Tiber has been delighting readers online since 2012. Now, it provides a book that can be thrown! The only news source brave enough to report stories like Pope Francis' midnight shift position at McDonalds, or Lila Rose going undercover as a fetus, Eye of the Tiber is the hilarious Catholic satire site that leaves no issue untouched, 'breaking Catholic news so you don't have to'. S.C. Naoum created EOTT in 2011 and has gained a loyal and confident following of many different Catholic personalities. In his debut title, Eye of the Tiber: The Book, S.C. brings readers a collection of lesser known Catholic headlines including over 60 new stories and many of his favorites from the past.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $16.95 | Hardcover $27.95

St. Robert Bellarmine (1542-1621) was a prolific author of the Counter Reformation and great defender of the Catholic Church. This book tells the story of the great saint who went from obscure title to become one of the most famous saints of his time.

eBook: $5.99 | Paperback: $12.95

In prior generations of great faith and great prayer; it was fairly common for people to excitedly share with each other about the many personal miracles which each person noticed each day. Unfortunately, our current civilization has become somewhat NUMB to the presence of God and to all of the daily miracles which God, our friend, still sends to each one of us every day.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $14.95

As Pope Francis point's out in The Joy of the Gospel, "If we want to advance in the spiritual life, then, we must constantly be missionaries." Adventures in the Father's Joy! provides the reader with concrete, inspirational examples of how a person is spiritualized through the gift of evangelization and missionary outreach. These mission adventures will illuminate and put "flesh" on the "spirit-filled" principles of mission and evangelization presented in Pope Francis' document on the new evangelization (Evangelii Gaudium). These "adventures in the Father's joy" are not just for Church "professionals"... every baptized Christian will discover in them a well-spring of joy and inspiration!

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $12.95

In a world where so many people are looking for a way out . . . an escape . . . and finding only pain and disillusionment, The Prayer of Jesus Crucified offers an authentic solution . . . a 'way in,' as it were; an entrance into what St. John of the Cross called "silent love" (contemplative prayer). The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that "Contemplation is a gaze of faith, fixed on Jesus." This book will guide the reader into the loving 'gaze' of Jesus where . . . "you will find rest for your souls" (Mt 11:29)

En un mundo donde tanta gente está buscando una salida... una manera de escapar... y encontrando solo dolor y desilusión, La Oración de Jesús Crucificado ofrece una solución autentica... una forma de entrar en lo que San Juan de La Cruz llamo "amor silencioso" (oración contemplativa). El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica enseña que, "La contemplación es una mirada de fe, fijada en Jesús." Este libro guiará al lector hacia la "mirada" amorosa de Jesús, donde... "encontrarás descanso para tus almas" (Mt 11,29)

eBook: $7.95 | Paperback: $7.95

EN ESPAÑOL

So what kind of a title is that Hmmph! The Sisters Karamazov? So you think you're a female Dostoevsky? Isn't that more than a little arrogant?"

Let me explain. The idea for writing this fictionalized account of my life came in this way. A friend of mine once announced proudly: "I'm reading the famous Brothers Karamazov by Dostoevsky." "You may not believe it," I replied grinning, "but Karamazov was my mother's maiden name!"

In this way begins the rollicking fictionalized autobiography of 3 generations of sisters living in the USA but of Russian-Jewish ancestry. An enmeshment of drama-queens, a psychologist might describe it. A story of redemption, a theologian might describe it. How will you, my reader, describe it?

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $18.99

First century Christianity and present-day musical aspirations meet in the story of a miracle table built by the grandfather of Jesus Christ. The table is placed in the hands of a Centurion named Cornelius following the death of the Messiah. Given the title of table bearer and a mission, Cornelius begins a history of bringing peace to those who encounter the table, a mission that will be sustained for over two thousand years. In the later years of that mission, the table and its current bearer, an autistic young man named Anthony, encounter Michael Fortunato. At the very moment of his breakthrough in the music industry, Michael loses the only thing that really mattered to him, his wife Debbie. The loss sends Michael into the center of darkness which he seemingly can't escape. That is until he meets Anthony, a table, and a story that is over two thousand years old.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $18.95

This book traces the Eucharist through the entire Bible: from Genesis to the Book of Revelation

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $16.95

Jesus is the only person in the history of the world whose biography was known before he was born! He wanted everyone on earth to know of this miraculous Old Testament portrait of himself (Luke 24:27), and that is the starting point for this book.

eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $18.95

Fr. Jeffrey "Skip" Thompson, MSA, a Missionary of the Holy Apostles, has created an intellectually stimulating and visually delightful photo-documentary of his experiences in Israel during an intercultural study tour sponsored by Holy Apostles College & Seminary in conjunction with the Jerusalem Center for Biblical Studies from December 27, 2011, to January 10, 2012. Over the course of the journey, which begins in Galilee and ends inside of Christ's tomb, Fr. Thompson shows us what can be seen in a two-week tour of the Holy Lands. These images will ignite a fire under anyone contemplating such a pilgrimage. This photo book should be downloaded onto the mobile devices of anyone who is heading that way or who desires one day to do so.

eBook: $9.99 | Hardcover: $39.99

Minor Setback or Major Disaster? presents the history of minor seminaries from the concept's inception following the sixteenth-century Council of Trent's mandate for a new training method for the Catholic priesthood up to the present. It describes the function and purpose of the "minor seminary," which initially corresponded to the four high school and two junior college years a young man preparing for the Catholic priesthood would participate in prior to his six years at a "major seminary."

Catalog produced by:
eBook: $9.99 | Paperback: $30.00

Have you ever wanted to promote your Catholic faith by sharing books with others? How about by selling books to others on the cheap? How about by going all out and building the world's LARGEST second-hand, Catholic bookstore? Bruce Mac Vicar shows you in five easy steps how to set up the organizational structure to make your dream a reality, walking you through the process of setting up, creating a support network and steady stream of incoming books, and moving your stock into the avid hands of the faithful (and not-yet-so-faithful) persons seeking a greater understanding of their relationship with God and man. If you're a Catholic looking for a lifelong, faith-filled and faith-sustaining project, this book is for you.

eBook: $9.99 | Hardcover: $9.99

Even nuns get to take a holiday! After all the investigations Sister Philomena's conducted this summer, she needs one. In this adventure, Sister Philomena, her niece, Delaney, and nephew, Riley, are invited to Siena, Italy, for the famous Palio horse race and festival. Their vacation plans abruptly change when they stumble upon mysterious documents while visiting the childhood home of St. Catherine of Siena. It's possible they have found a centuries-old letter written by Saint Catherine along with a ransom note addressed to the Pope. Of course, they must investigate! Their search for answers takes them on a fast trip across Europe to Avignon, France, and the famous Palace of the Popes. In the course of their investigation, the children learn about Saint Catherine and the history of the Church in the 1300s when the papacy was forced to flee from Rome to Avignon for safety.

The 30 pieces of silver that Judas was paid for betraying Jesus were found in Israel. The Franciscan monks of Jerusalem sent the coins to the Vatican Museums for authentication and safekeeping – but then they disappeared! The Holy Father naturally must call upon his special agent, Sister Philomena, to find them. The search for the coins leads Sister Philomena, Riley, and Delaney on a harrowing ride through Rome with that crazy Sister Lisa Renee at the wheel. In the hunt for the coins, the reader gets to visit some of the great Basilicas of Rome and discover the many relics of the Passion of Jesus that are preserved in the basilicas.

Luigi, a desperately poor man, breaks into the Basilica of Saint Francis in Assisi, Italy, to steal something of great value. Thus begins another Adventure with Sister Philomena, Special Agent to the Pope. Eager to assist their aunt and find clues, Sister Philomena's niece and nephew explore the basilica, study its frescos, sneak into the tomb of Saint Francis, wander through the hill town of Assisi, and more... Every once in a while they spot a wolf, hear its howl or feel its presence. Is it real or a spirit? Good or evil? What is it trying to tell them? Woven into this great tale of adventure are the personal stories of Saint Francis and Saint Clare and the sights and sounds of Assisi.

Lost in Peter's Tomb is the first book in a series of mystery adventures designed to present the stories of the saints in an intriguing and educational manner. Set in modern Italy, the stories follow a brother and sister in their adventures with their Aunt, who is a special agent for the Pope. In this first adventure, Sister Philomena and the children track an intruder in St. Peter's Basilica and help recover the missing relics of St. Peter, all the while learning about St. Peter's life. Children will be introduced to Italian words and phrases, learn about the Vatican and Italian lifestyles, as well as famous places and works of art in Italy.

$14.95 paperback, $24.95 hardcover gift edition

Author, Dianne Ahern, grew up on a farm in Illinois, has traveled extensively for business and pleasure, and now resides in Ann Arbor, Michigan. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Biology and Medical Technology from Marian College (University), and a Master's degree in Healthcare Administration from Indiana University. After rewarding careers in laboratory medicine, hospital administration, and healthcare consulting, Dianne found a new love: researching and writing about the events that shape our lives. It was after her first Vatican visit in 1999, when Dianne looked into the eyes of Pope (Saint) John Paul II, held his hand, and kissed his ring, that she felt called to write books for Catholic children and their families. Already a successful businesswoman, Dianne formed her own publishing company, Aunt Dee's Attic, to support her new calling.

A children's read-to-me story about a baby's baptism day. The story is written from the perspective of the baby watching the goings-on of the day. The story helps children to understand the Sacrament of Baptism and is especially helpful to prepare siblings for the Baptism of their new brother or sister.

Six short essays explain the significance and traditions associated with Baptism. The essays are nice "refreshers" for Christians who might not have thought about Baptism for a while, and are helpful to explain Baptism to individuals who have not received formal religious education.

Today I Made My First Communion is a storybook, a reference book, and a memory book. The "Look in the Back of the Book" reference section contains a rendered drawing of 'Our Church' and expands the understanding of prayers, the commandments, and the 'Parts of the Mass'. The "Memories of My First Communion Day" section allows the First Communicant and his or her family to personalize the book and create a lasting memory of this special day.

$19.95 hardcover gift edition

The "Guide to the Sacrament of Reconciliation" contains information on confessionals, the Commandments, examination of conscience, prayers, how to go to confession, and includes scriptural references.

The "Memories of My First Reconciliation Day" section allows the first-time penitent and his or her family to personalize the book and create a lasting memory of this special day.

Today Someone I Love Passed Away provides a Catholic understanding of death and salvation, the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, and the Last Viaticum. There is also a reference section that includes Biblical support of judgment and purgatory, and also describes customs observed by other religions. At the end of the book, there is a special section for a child and / or other family members to create a lasting memorial for their loved one.

“Something magical happens when two people decide they want to spend the rest of their lives together. They stand on the threshold of being totally committed to one another for as long as they both shall live, regardless of health or wealth. It is the time to revel in the mystery of what lies ahead — soon a wedding and a honeymoon, then a home, children, mingling of families and friends, sharing joys, sharing sorrows, and most importantly, the two becoming one through marriage,” excerpt from Today We Became Engaged.

$22.95 hardcover gift edition

With charming pictures and simple words, Hunter Finds a Home tells the story of a homeless cat that wandered into the backyard and the lives of a family of dog-lovers. At first unwanted and unwelcome, the young cat is gradually embraced by the family and returns the favor by teaching some valuable lessons. A story for all ages.

eBook: $5.99 | Hardcover: $17.95

Choosing Joy is the charming story of a rescued Golden Retriever named Joy. On a deeper level, the story extends a gentle invitation to readers, both young and grown-up, to “choose joy” in their daily living. Choosing Joy is a winsome reminder that “joy” may be right in front of our eyes.

Paperback: $12.95 | Hardcover: $17.95

Catalog designed by:

