DIVINE CATCHING

“So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore,
full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them;
and though there were so many the net was not torn” (John 21:11).

The Call of the Apostles, Fishers of Men

Some ancients thought that the number of 153 fishes were representing for all of their species, and this haul was a symbol for all people.

CAST into the DEEP ...

The catch is big,
but the fishers are few;
so ask the
DIVINE FISHER
of the catch
to send out fishers for his catch.

Recalls Luke 5:1-10; 10:2

Time to Fishing? Not the Time?

Simon said in reply,
“Master, we have worked hard
all night
and have caught nothing,
but at your command I will lower the nets.”

SAINT ELIZABETH ANN SETON

Patroness of the Sea Services, pray for us.

The Sea at Katwijk / The Sea | Jan Toorop, 1887

The PASSION of JESUS

is a

SEA of SORROWS

but it is also an

OCEAN of LOVE.

Ask the Lord

to teach you to

FISH in this OCEAN.

DIVE into its DEPTHS.

NO MATTER HOW DEEP YOU GO,

YOU WILL

NEVER REACH THE BOTTOM.

(Saint Paul of the Cross)

As we learning to never reach the bottom:

In her voyage across the ocean of this world, the Church is like a great ship being pounded by the waves of life's different stresses. Our duty is not to abandon ship but to keep her on course. (Saint Boniface)

(...) and the storms the ship of Peter has weathered because it has Christ on board. (Saint Thomas Becket)

Jesus said to His Holy Apostles,
“You will be catching people.”

(Luke 5:10)

The Sermon of Saint Anthony to the Fish
was because the people did not listen to the Word of God.

O ye fishes of the sea and of the river be attentive rather the people!

[I Fioretti of Saint Francis of Assisi, chapter 40]

Saint Anthony Preaching to the Fishes, ca. 1630, attributed to Francisco de Herrera the Elder

NOW YOU: CATCH PEOPLE!

"The Good Shepherd has risen, who laid down his life for his sheep and willingly died for his flock, alleluia."
(The Holy Mass, Monday of the Third Week of Easter; Entrance Antiphon)

The Divine Fisher has risen, who laid down his life for his people and willingly died for his catch, alleluia.
(poetic license)

(Saint Peter University Hospital, Brunswick NJ USA; stained glass)

The Divine Fisher has risen.
He caught his people and died for them.

(Confer Luke 5:1-10, John 21:11)

MARY, STAR of the SEA,

light of every ocean, guide seafarers across all dark and stormy seas that they may reach the haven of peace and light prepared in Him who calmed the sea. As we set forth upon the oceans of the world and cross the deserts of our time, show us, O Mary, the fruit of your womb, for without your Son we are lost. Pray that we will never fail on life's journey, that in heart and mind, word and deed, in days of turmoil and in days of calm, we will always look to Christ and say, 'Who is this that even wind and sea obey him?'

Our Lady of Peace, pray for us!

Bright Star of the Sea, guide us!

Our Lady, Star of the Sea, pray for seafarers, pray for us.

The ancient argonauts ... any FISHER ... or any person ...
be tempted and fall from the sirens's songs ... or any reason ...
don't lure for a "fishy" / untrue story,
and
don't fall into temptation
... hopefully, then repair it.

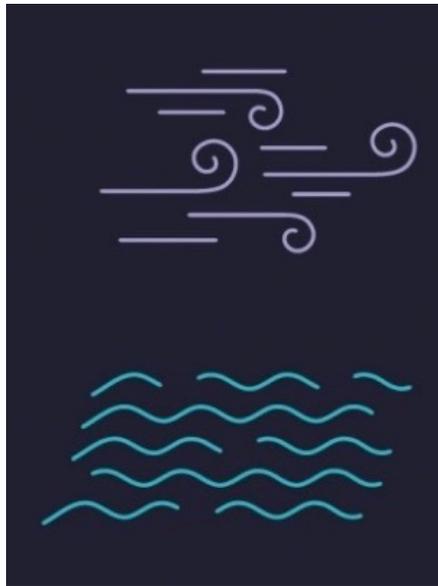

A bad habit
and / or a fluke action,
as your heart is flounder:

Change your course to a "conversion of heart is accompanied by a salutary pain and sadness which the Fathers called animi cruciatus (affliction of spirit) and compunctio cordis (repentance of heart)."

(Confer this source: The Catechism of the Catholic Church (paragraph 1431).

In Collision Courses in the Raging Seas or similar circumstances:

Saint Bonaventure noted that Our Lady, the Star of the Sea: “guides to a landfall in heaven those who navigate the sea of this world in the ship of innocence or penance.”

The Blessed Virgin Mary is a beacon and a lifesaver in our stormy seas.

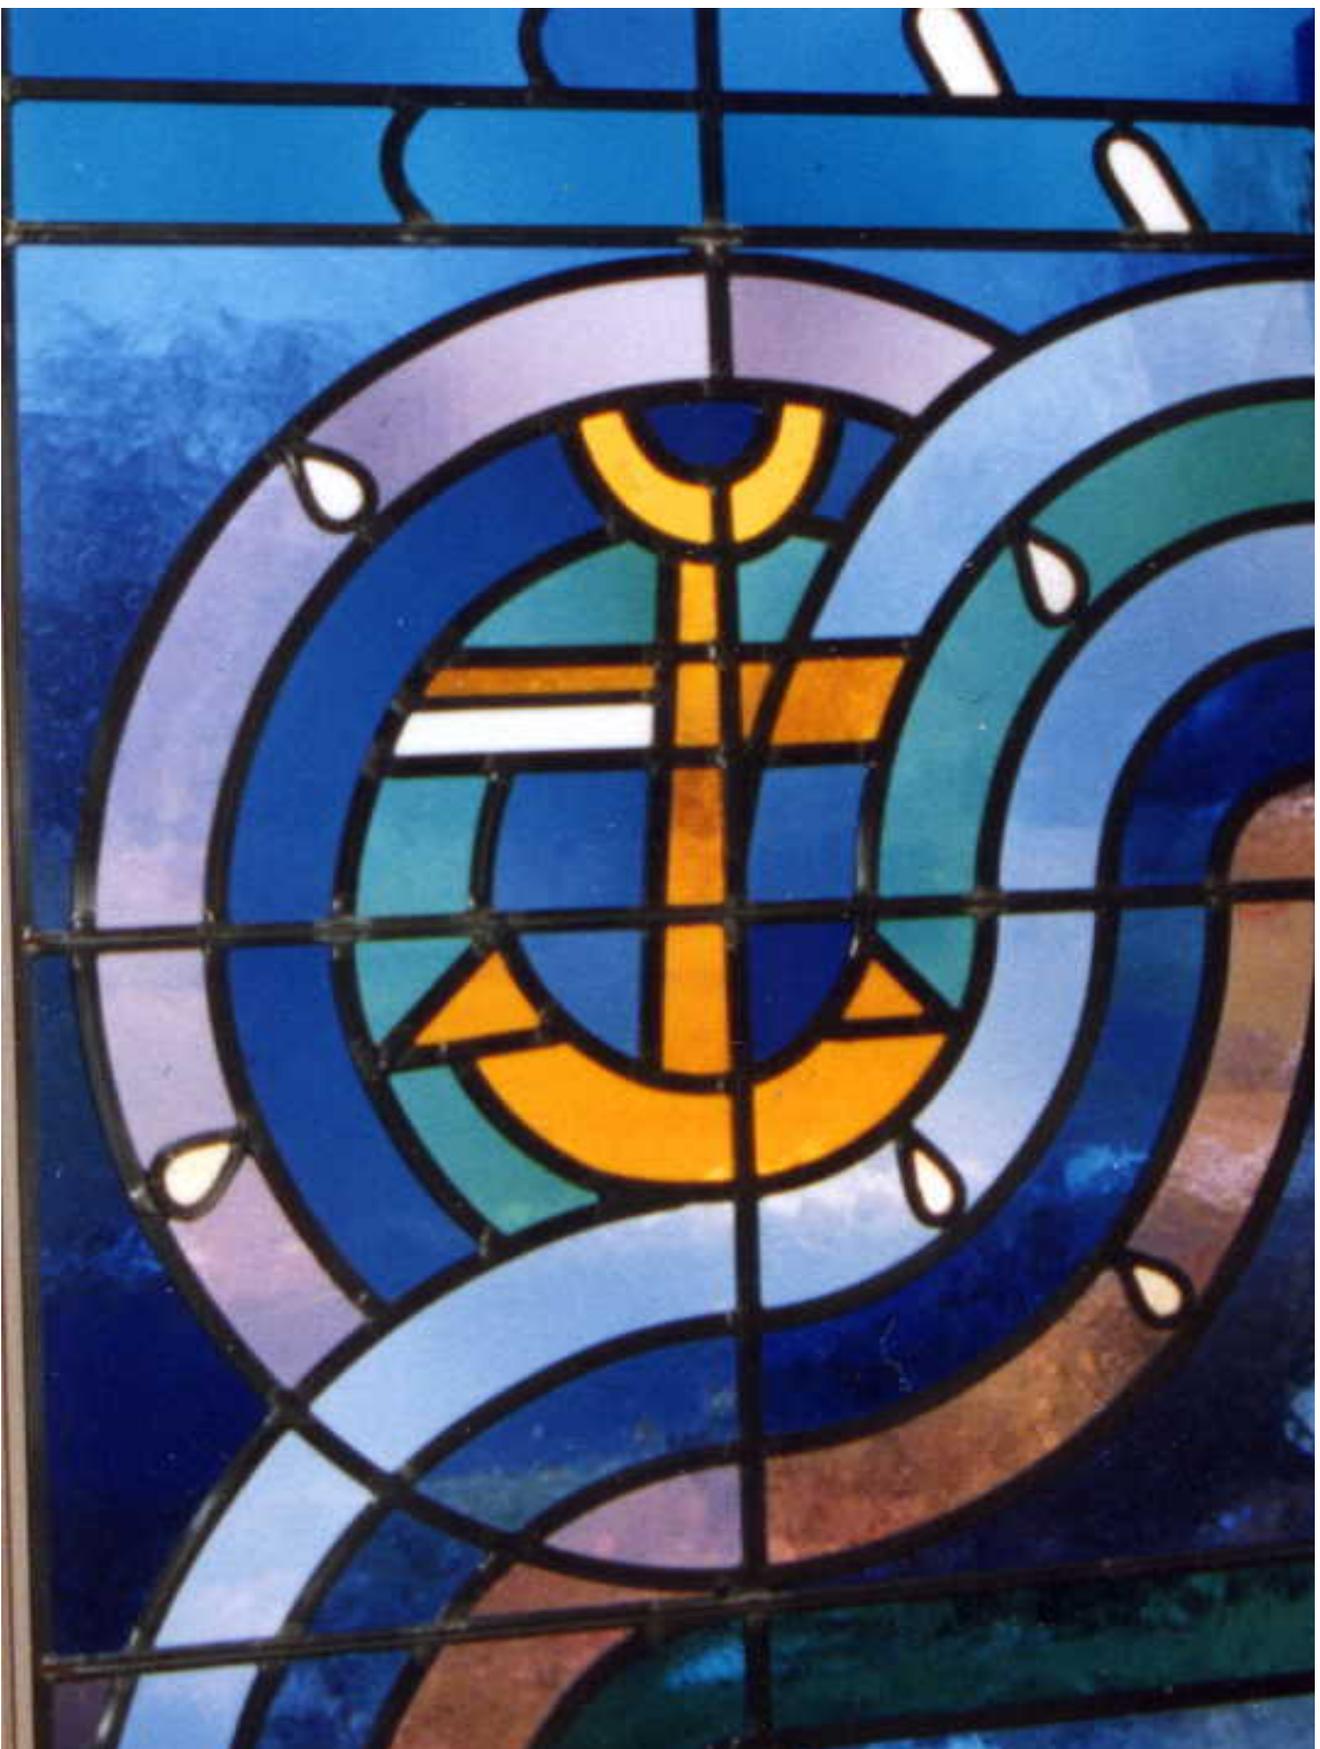

A BEACON of HOPE

The Cross is like a beacon that point out the port to ships, fishing boats and all vessels, that are still afloat on stormy seas. It is the sign of the hope that does not let us down; and it tells us that not even one tear, not one cry is lost in God's saving plan.

In any events,
circumstances, forecasts,
ALL / et cetera:

BLESSED BE GOD
all ways and always

The Anchor of

is of the soul, sure and firm. It reaches behind a veil.
(see Hebrews 6:19)

About:

Vincent A. SALAMONI

He is a member of the Missionaries of the Holy Apostles (M.S.A.). Their charism is to promote, form and accompany vocations to the priesthood and other ministries.

He ministered aboard from a dugout canoe in the Peruvian Amazon basin to served onboard a nuclear air carrier, the USS ENTERPRISE (CVN-65), rather a starship, and retired from the Chaplain Corps of the United States Navy.

Afterward, he became the Provincial Emeritus of the MSA USA.

Now, hopefully he is trying to through, with, and in, reflecting the traditional virtues, from the Catechism of the Catholic Church, and to be to those were encountered in him, to sound them in the depths of their heart.
