SAINT VINCENT de PAUL with NOAH

Mosaic in the Basilica of Saint Mark, Venice

The participants of Vincent's retreats were as various as the fishes of the waters. These people represent the Communion of the Church: young and old, scholar and illiterate, rich and poor, elite and outcasts, clergy and the laity, et cetera. The sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous (cf. Matthew 5:45). Saint Vincent said about his retreats, was like Noah's ark: every kind of creature was to be found in it.

"OCEAN of MERCY"

in the Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska's Divine Mercy in My Soul:

I was given the knowledge of the Heart of Jesus
and of the nature of the fire of love with which He burns for us and of how
He is an Ocean of Mercy.

(1142)

You expired Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls, and the
ocean of mercy
opened up for the whole world.

O Fountain of Life,
unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the whole world and empty Yourself out upon us.

(1319)

The "Ocean of Mercy" is Jesus' unconditional Love.
"The Mercy Ocean" is a state living in that Mystery.

About:
Vincent A. SALAMONI

He is a member of the Missionaries of the Holy Apostles (M.S.A.). Their charism is to promote, form and accompany vocations to the priesthood and other ministries.

He ministered aboard from a dugout canoe in the Peruvian Amazon to served onboard, rather a starship, a nuclear air carrier, - the ENTERPRISE, and retired in the Chaplain Corps of the United States Navy.

Afterward, he is a Provincial Emeritus of the MSA USA.

He is being through, with, and in, the traditional virtues that reflect in the books The Mercy Ocean, The Sea Lord's Bookshelf, V Recalls Stars and especially the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

who trespass against us,
and lead us not into temptation,*
but deliver us from evil.

* “and lead us not into temptation” (cf. Mt 26:41, a liturgical form).

“and do not let us fall into temptation” was translated by Pope Francis.

“It is difficult to translate the Greek verb used by a single English word: the Greek means both ‘do not allow us to enter into temptation’ and ‘do not let us yield to temptation.’ ‘God cannot be tempted by evil and he himself tempts no one’” (CCC 2846).

THE SERENITY PRAYER

God,
grant me the serenity
to accept the things
I cannot change,
courage to change
the things I can,
and the wisdom
to know the difference.

God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference - living one day at a time, enjoying one moment at a time, accepting the hardships as the pathway to peace, taking, as he did, this sinful world as it is, not as he did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it, trusting that he will make all things right if I surrender to his will - that I may be reasonably happy in this life and supremely happy with him forever.

Philip St. Romain, in Reflecting on the Serenity Prayer, was not able to find out how these two versions were evolved from Reinhold Niebuhr's original prayer.

ALL RIGHT* = SERENITY

No matter how wrong things seem to be,
they are all right.
Things are all right

ITE ... GO TO JOSEPH

Saint Joseph is “an extraordinary figure.”

Saint Joseph did not do big things, he had no special gifts; he did not see as a hero in the eyes of those who met him. He was not a famous star: "the Gospels do not report even a single word of his. Still, through his ordinary life, he accomplished something extraordinary in the eyes of God".

Saint Joseph "is an outstanding example of acceptance of God's plans."

Be faithful, in daily routines, because it is the secret of joy.

“May St. Joseph, protector of vocations, accompany you with his fatherly heart!”

Pope Francis' Message:

JESUS' CROSS = GOD'S SILENT THRONE

The Sacred Heart of Jesus is the model for the Silent Heart of Saint Joseph.

Jesus's cross is God's silent throne ... let us recognize our limitations, the wounds of our sin. His wounds for our sake. By Jesus' wounds we have been healed.

The risen Jesus bears the marks of the wounds in his hands, feet and side.

These wounds are the everlasting seal of his love for us. All those who experience a painful trial in body or spirit can find refuge in these wounds and, through them, receive the grace of the hope that does not disappoint. Do not be afraid.*

* Confer: 1 Pt 2:24, Mt 28:5 and Pope Francis; also see St. Joseph in Mt 1:20.

SAINT JOSEPH and HIS ORIGINAL SIN

The Blessed Virgin Mary, the Immaculate Conception, in the instant of her creation was preserved from Original Sin.

Marco Matola, O.F.M., an Italian priest said this in about 1979:

Was St. Joseph removed from Original Sin in his mother's womb?

The friar thought that beautiful idea would be written.

At least, those few words are first printed here in 2021!

Also, in any event:

Silent Heart of Saint Joseph, pray for us.

PRIMACY of the UNIVERSE

May God grant that I speak with judgment and have thoughts worthy of what I have received, for he is the guide even of wisdom and the corrector of the wise. For both we and our words are in his hand, as are all understanding and skill in crafts.

For it is he who gave me unerring knowledge of what exists, to know the structure of the world and the activity of the elements; the beginning and end and middle of times, the alternations of the solstices and the changes of the seasons, the cycles of the year and the constellations of the stars, the natures of animals and the tempers of wild beasts, the powers of spirits and the reasonings of men, the varieties of plants and the virtues of roots; I learned both what is secret and what is manifest, for wisdom, the fashioner of all things, taught me.

For in her there is a spirit that is intelligent, holy, unique, manifold, subtle, mobile, clear, unpolluted, distinct, invulnerable, loving the good, keen, irresistible, beneficent, humane, steadfast, sure, free from anxiety, all-powerful, overseeing all, and penetrating through all spirits that are intelligent and pure and most subtle. For wisdom is more mobile than any motion; because of her pureness she pervades and penetrates all things. For she is a breath of the power of God, and a pure emanation of the glory of the Almighty; therefore nothing defiled gains entrance into her. For she is a reflection of eternal light, a spotless mirror of the working of God, and an image of his goodness.

Though she is but one, she can do all things, and while remaining in herself, she renews all things; in every generation she passes into holy souls and makes them friends of God, and prophets; for God loves nothing so much as the man who lives with wisdom. For she is more beautiful than the sun, and excels every constellation of the stars. Compared with the light she is found to be superior, for it is succeeded by the night, but against wisdom evil does not prevail. She reaches mightily from one end of the earth to the other, and she orders all things well (Wisdom 7:15-8:1).

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God ... And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father (John 1:1,14).

He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation; for in him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities - all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that in everything he might be pre-eminent.

For in him all the fulness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. And you, who once were estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him, provided that you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel which you heard, which has been preached to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister (Colossians 1:15-23).

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places ... as a plan for the fulness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth (Ephesians 1:3,10).

CHRIST'S MYSTICAL BODY

The Title:

HEART OF CHRIST'S MYSTICAL BODY

This title is may be the first time to use this description.

Your and other's heart, when in the state of grace, is united in the Heart of Christ's Mystical Body.

Jesus is the Head of the Mystical Body (see Colossians 1:18). Christ, says St. Paul, the Apostle, is the Head of the Body of the Church.

We see Pope Pius XII writing in the Encyclical Mystical Body of Christ (Mystici Corporis Christi): The Body of Christ are united with their Head (nn. 11, 14).

A head may be a represent the intellect. Of course, Jesus is the Head of the Body of the Church.

And / both we may represent the heart.

"The spiritual tradition of the Church also emphasizes the heart, in the biblical sense of the depths of one's being," where a person decides (Catechism of the Catholic Church [CCC], paragraph 368).

Sacred Scripture is a "reason of the unity of God's plan, of which Christ Jesus is the center and heart (...); we understand the phrase "heart of Christ" (see CCC, 112).

Others hearts are united in the One Heart of Christ's Mystical Body.

The Lines:

SACRED HEART OF JESUS, HAVE MERCY ON US.

A traditional short prayer.

Christ “has loved us all with a human heart. For this reason, the Sacred Heart of Jesus, pierced by our sins and for our salvation” (CCC, 478).

IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY, PRAY FOR US.

A traditional short prayer.

Jesus joined Mary of Nazareth with his sacrifice in her mother’s heart (CCC, 964).

Another title of Mary for her heart is a popular prayer that is asking, “Sorrowful Heart of Mary, pray for us.”

SILENT HEART OF JOSEPH, PRAY FOR US.

This may be the first use of this term for praying.

Saint Joseph is silent in the Gospels.

HAND DOWN HEARTS OF THE HOLY APOSTLES,
PRAY FOR US,

This may be the first use of this term for praying.

“Hand down” is an idiom passing to others.

The Holy Apostles hand down Jesus’ teachings (Apostles’ Creed).

POVERELLO’S THE KINGDOM OF GOD,
PRAY FOR US.

This may be the first use of this term for praying.

“Poverello” is a nickname for Saint Francis of Assisi.

It is famous calling him as the poor one.

We see the Beatitudes (Sermon of the Mount; Matthew 5:3).

St. Francis is a model of the poor in spirit.
The poor in spirit have the kingdom of heaven.

THE PURE IN HEART, PRAY FOR US.

Matthew 5:8 refers it.

This may be the first use of this term for praying.

Temperance is a classical cardinal virtue.

Perhaps, see and pray with other phrases similar “THE SINCERE HEARTS”, “THE UPRIGHT HEARTS”, “THE GENTLE HEARTS”, and “THE BROKENHEARTED, PRAY FOR US”!

GRAFTING HEARTS, WE TEACH AND ASK
UNITED IN THE LORD JESUS.

This may be the first use of this term for praying.

“Grafting” referred to the True Vine in the Gospel (John 15:5).

We teach because, “The Word became flesh to make us partakers of the divine nature” (CCC, 460; 2 Peter 1:4).

We ask because, “it will be given to you; seek and you will find” (Mt 7:7) whatever (Jn 16:23).

The motto of the Society of the Missionaries of the Holy Apostles (MSA) reflects human hearts to be love to all Creator’s children.
(Gal 3:28, 1 Cor 6:17).

UNITED IN THE LORD JESUS.

AMEN.

So be it.

Saint Jane Frances de Chantal's LITTLE BOAT

"Here is a little model of what we should do when we are taken by surprise as we row peacefully in our little boat. When all our emotions arise to stir up a great internal storm that seems certain to overwhelm us or drag us after it, we must not wish to calm this tempest ourselves. Rather, we must gently draw near the shore, keeping our will firmly in God, and coast along with the little waves; by humble knowledge of ourselves, we will reach God, who is our sure port. Let us go gently along without agitation or anxiety and without giving in to our emotions."

sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Amen.

MARY, STAR of the SEA, light of every ocean, guide seafarers across all dark and stormy seas that they may reach the haven of peace and light prepared in Him who calmed the sea. As we set forth upon the oceans of the world and cross the deserts of our time, show us, O Mary, the fruit of your womb, for without your Son we are lost. Pray that we will never fail on life's journey, that in heart and mind, word and deed, in days of turmoil and in days of calm, we will always look to Christ and say, 'Who is this that even wind and sea obey him?'

Our Lady of Peace, pray for us!

Bright Star of the Sea, guide us!

Our Lady, Star of the Sea, pray for seafarers, pray for us.

[The prayer of Saint John Paul II to Our Lady, Star of the Sea]

MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS
FOR THE 2020 WORLD DAY OF VOCATIONS
(The Last Two Paragraphs)

Even amid the storm-tossed waters, then, our lives become open to praise. This is the last of our vocation words, and it is an invitation to cultivate the interior disposition of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Grateful that Lord gazed upon her, faithful amid fear and turmoil, she courageously embraced her vocation and made of her life an eternal song of praise to the Lord.

Dear friends, on this day in particular, but also in the ordinary pastoral life of our communities, I ask the Church to continue to promote vocations. May she touch the hearts of the faithful and enable each of them to discover with gratitude God's call in their lives, to find courage to say "yes" to God, to overcome all weariness through faith in Christ, and to make of their lives a song of praise for God, for their brothers and sisters, and for the whole world. May the Virgin Mary accompany us and intercede for us.

FOR THE CELEBRATION OF THE
54th WORLD DAY OF PEACE
1 JANUARY 2021

A CULTURE OF CARE AS A PATH TO PEACE

9. There can be no peace without a culture of care

At a time like this, when the barque of humanity, tossed by the storm of the current crisis, struggles to advance towards a calmer and more serene horizon, the “rudder” of human dignity and the “compass” of fundamental social principles can enable us together to steer a sure course. As Christians, we should always look to Our Lady, Star of the Sea and Mother of Hope. May we work together to advance towards a new horizon of love and peace, of fraternity and solidarity, of mutual support and acceptance.

Our Lady, Star of the Sea and Mother of Hope, pray for us.

A BEACON of HOPE

The Cross is like a beacon that point out the port to ships that are still afloat on stormy seas. It is the sign of the hope that does not let us down; and it tells us that not even one tear, not one cry is lost in God's saving plan.

(Saint Paul Le-Bao-Tinh, Vietnamese Martyrs)

STILLA MARIS

A Drop of the Sea*

The Blessed Virgin Mary has various titles and here are two:

STELLA MARIS - the Star of the Sea.

STILLA MARIS - a Drop of the Sea.

Perhaps would be useful to study about Eusebius of Caesarea, Saint Jerome, the given name Miriam, the name of Mary, Ave Maria, Stella Maris, and confer Saint Faustina's Divine Mercy in My Soul (Diary, 432) and in other places.

Be immersed in fathomless Divine Mercy like a drop of water in the ocean.

HOLY MARY,
a Drop of the Sea,
pray for us.

* Some biblical scholars have seen in it the Hebrew words mar (bitter) and yam (sea). This first meaning can refer to Mary's bitter suffering at the cross and her many tears of sorrow.

Another interpretation of the word mar renders Mary's name to mean "drop of the sea" and St. Jerome rendered it in Latin as stilla maris, which was later changed to stella (star) maris. This accounts for a popular title for Mary as "Star of the Sea".

Furthermore, perhaps study for the Pole Star (Polaris, North Star, polar star, polestar), which was related with earlier Marian veneration.

OUR LADY of MOUNT CARMEL = STELLA MARIS

The veneration of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, often is associated with the devotion of her title Stella Maris.

As seen, the Brown Scapular is not holding here, rather the Carmelite's coat of arms, which includes stars.

Perhaps, a star there recalls the relationship with Our Lady, Star of the Sea; as we know the sanctuary Stella Maris in Mount Carmel.

The MOTHER of GOD

is the source of all her titles.

Words have limitations.
These “lifesaver” and “beacon”
are catalysts for devotion to her.

The Magi from the East followed the Child's star.

The Mother of God
has a title
STELLA MARIS | the STAR of the SEA.

We follow her.

In our lives,
we become overwhelm
in the waves of our lives.

We look to her as a lifesaver for us.

Our Mother is a beacon beckons to:
The lamp is the Lamb.

* “The lamp is the Lamb” (Revelation 21:23).

After the Nativity of the Lord,
the Magi's gifts were presented to the Wedding of Cana!

Time is a measure.

In eternity there is no time.
With the Lord one day is like a thousand years,
and a thousand years are like one day.

The history of these mysteries are partially unveiled here:

The Star of Bethlehem and the Star of the Sea are beacons that beckon to:
the lamp is the Lamb.

LAMB of GOD ... AGNUS DEI.

Saint Bonaventure noted that Our Lady, the Star of the Sea: “guides to a landfall in heaven those who navigate the sea of this world in the ship of innocence or penance.”

The Blessed Virgin Mary is a beacon and a lifesaver in our stormy seas.

PSALM 23 (Nautical Version)

The Lord of the Seas,
there is nothing I shall requisition.
Peaceful, like glass are the waters
where he gives me rack time.
To restful ports he leads me,
to boost my low morale.

He guides me along the true course;
he is faithful to his name.
If I should sail into storms of darkness
no shipwreck would I fear.
You are there with your chart and compass;
with these you give me liberty.

You have set up the mess decks for me in the sight of my foes.
You anoint my head with a trim;
my mug is overflowing.

Surely fair winds and following seas shall follow me all the days of my cruise.
In the Lord's own harbor shall I moor for ever and ever.

[The insignia is from the radar navigation's rich history.]

SPIRITUAL NAVIGATION

Navigators speak of a "three point fix" in order to be able a reliable position on a chart. It is when three distances intersect themselves.

In a discernment is a "spiritual triangulation".

Spiritually also needs to intersect three points together.

For finding your correct position after ponder:

- 1. God's objective moral law, revealed in Sacred Scripture, Tradition and a legitimate magisterium;
- 2. God arranges providentially in situations; and
- 3. the testimony of your own informed conscience and inner peace.

By lining up all three points at the same time is to be prudent.

It is the only way to stay as close to the course as we need.

If in a decision giving ALONE:

- a) Objective law alone is to run aground on LEGALISM.
- b) Situations alone is to drift aimlessly into RELATIVISM.
- c) Individual conscience alone is to sink into SUBJECTIVISM.

In the event: "To navigate is precise; to live is not precise."

We need all the help in the voyage of life!

SAINT PETER WALKED on the WATER

Matthew 14:22-36

Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus.

(...) he became frightened; and, beginning to sink (...)

(...) Peter cried out in an act, "LORD, SAVE ME!"

Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught him (...)

What happened when Peter was caught, before he got into the boat?

After sinking:

Did Peter become a playing ball, which Jesus had caught?

Did Peter become a hauling fish, whom did Jesus dragged to the boat?

Did Peter walk on water, after his act of faith?

Saint Peter walked on the water!

VINCENT de PAUL

Royal Chaplain of the Galleys of France

Vincent consoled the sorrowful, defended the rights of orphans and generously aided widows; whatever he did for the least, he did for Jesus.

The miserable condemned prisoners aboard the galleys were especially the least ... targets for opportunities to receive spiritual and corporal works of mercy.

They endured in various circumstances: damp dungeons ... chains on their legs ... only black bread and water ... covered with vermin and ulcers ... more repulsive conditions!

In any event, his legacy includes that King Louis XIII appointed him the royal almoner of the galleys.

The best title of Vincent de Paul is:

SAINT

SAINT ELIZABETH ANN SETON, Patroness of the Sea Services, pray for us.

THE NAVY LINK

SAINT ELIZABETH ANN SETON was canonized in September 14, 1975 by Pope Paul VI. Shortly the then Chief of Navy Chaplains, Monsignor John J. O'Connor (formerly John Cardinal O'Connor, the Archbishop of New York) took the initiative to proclaim Mother Seton "PATRONESS OF THE SEA SERVICES" for Catholic men and women in uniform the Navy, the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, and the Merchant Marine. Admiral James D. Watkins, then Chief of Naval Personnel, collaborated closely with Rear Admiral O'Connor in that effort and in 1977 they struck a medal honoring Mother Seton because of her link to the Navy through her two sons, William and Richard.

William Seton was appointed Midshipman on the fourth of July in 1817. In February of 1818 he reported for duty aboard the USS INDEPENDENCE, and in July he was assigned to the USS MACEDONIAN which sailed from Boston later in the year on a cruise around Cape Horn to Valparaiso, Chile. While he was on this voyage, his mother died on January 4, 1821. In May of 1822 he was ordered to the USS CYANE. This voyage in the Mediterranean and along the coast of Africa lasted more than three years. Late in February of 1826 he was given his commission as Lieutenant in the U.S. Navy. In November he was ordered to the Sloop of War HORNET which was sent from Norfolk, Virginia to cruise the West Indian waters in search of pirates. He resigned as Lieutenant on July 5 of 1834, almost seventeen years to the day he was appointed Midshipman.

Richard Seton, the second son, was the Captain's clerk on the USS CYANE. The Navy has very little information to give about Richard Seton. For almost a year (June 1822 to April 1823), he was on duty with this ship off the coast of Africa, where the United States Government was supporting the American Colonizing Society in its efforts to found a free Negro Colony in Liberia. In a letter from the Reverend Jehudi Ashmun, an Episcopalian missionary in the area, we learn that Richard contracted a fatal fever while nursing the minister back to life. Shortly afterwards, Richard Seton died of this fever on June 26 of 1823 and was buried at sea.

This as far as know now is the best source:

In 2011 "The 'Navy Link' to St. Elizabeth Ann Seton" was found in a website famvin.org

At 2021, further information here was not found in domain public sites, and about this information.

Acclaims for the Mercy Ocean

“Fr. Salamoni’s unique reflections on Faith and Life in a nautical context have always spoken to me and others who are involved in maritime work and the ministry to the People of the Sea. May this collection be an inspiration to all mariners, and all who live, recreate or work upon the vast waters.” – Doreen M Badeaux, Secretary General Apostleship of the Sea of the United States of America

“I have served with Fr Salamoni for many years as a fellow Active Duty Navy Chaplain. I have been the beneficiary of his writings which were always joyful, thought provoking, and a delight to read. I heartily and happily give my endorsement to this latest collection. Enjoy!” – Bishop Joseph L Coffey, Vicar for Veterans Affairs, Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA

On the occasion of the 9/11 Boatlift 20th Anniversary Tribute: “Thank you Chaplain: We appreciate you thinking of us as we prepare to honor the heroes, victims and survivors. Your maritime-related prayers continue to uplift many of our members.” – Jessica LM Hitchen, Executive Director, New York Council Navy League

“May The Mercy Ocean be a source of consolation for all who ponder on its gems of wisdom.” — Very Rev. Peter S. Kucer, MSA, STD; President-Rector of Holy Apostles College & Seminary.

“To those who meditate, the Spirit’s gift of Knowledge and Understanding is abundant, and the Heart of Jesus is open for us to see if we seek Him in such a path. Father Vincent’s short work of collected meditations and memorable quotes from various sources is a simple and genuine fruit of his own labor of meditation. Enveloped in beautiful images, and even more beautiful thoughts, The Mercy Ocean is a piece meant to help those along their own path of meditation. Read slowly, read carefully, and read seeking the face of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary.” — Fra. Angelo, Knights of the Holy Eucharist

“Antoine de Saint Exupéry (1900-1944), a French writer and aviator, once wrote: ‘If you want to build a ship, don’t drum up people to collect wood and don’t assign them tasks and work, but rather teach them to long for the endless immensity of the sea.’ Fr. Vincent Salamoni’s The Mercy Ocean accomplishes this. More than a sailor’s retreat, this book is a sailor’s delight in the way it inspires the contemplative to cast out into the deep of God’s mercy and grace.” — Dr. Sebastian Mahfood, OP, author of *The Narrative Spirituality of Dante’s Divine Comedy: a hundred-day guided journal

(Evening Prayer II, Canticle of Mary) Three mysteries mark this holy day: today the star leads the Magi to the infant Christ; today water is changed into wine for the wedding feast; today Christ wills to be baptized by John in the river Jordan to bring us salvation.

Saturday after Epiphany to the Baptism of the Lord:

SAINT AUGUSTINE and THE MERCY OCEAN

The great Doctor of the Church St. Augustine of Hippo spent over 30 years working on his treatise De Trinitate [about the Holy Trinity], endeavoring to conceive an intelligible explanation for the mystery of the Trinity.

The Vision of St. Augustine

St. Augustine was walking by the seashore one day contemplating the mystery of the Holy Trinity when he saw a little child running back and forth from the water to a spot on the seashore. The boy was using a shell to carry water from the large ocean and pour it into a small pit that he had made in the sand.

Augustine came up to him and asked him what he was doing.

"I'm going to pour the entire ocean into this hole," the boy replied.

"What?" said Augustine. "That is impossible, my dear child, the sea is so great and the shell and the hole are so little."

"That is true," the boy said. "It would be easier and quicker to draw all the water out of the sea and fit it into this hole than for you to fit the mystery of the Trinity and His Divinity into your little intellect; for the Mystery of the Trinity is greater and larger in comparison with your intelligence than is this vast ocean in comparison with this little hole."

And then the child vanished.

What does it mean?

Some say that St. Augustine had been talking with an angel sent by God to teach him a lesson on intellectual pride. Others say it was the Christ Child Himself who came to remind Augustine of the limits of human understanding in relation to the great mysteries of our Faith.

The Sea Shell

Because of this story, the sea shell has become a symbol of St. Augustine and the study of theology.

GOD'S PLAN
and the Immaculate Conception

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

The Immaculate Conception refers about the Blessed Virgin Mary, who is the Mother of God.

The mystery of the Incarnation refers to the Second Person of the Most Blessed Trinity became flesh.

The Word became flesh, a human nature and lived with us (see John 1:14 and the Catechism of the Catholic Church, paragraph 461).

The REASON for the
IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

The mystery of the Immaculate Conception proclaimed “that the Blessed Virgin Mary, in the first instance of her conception, by a singular grace and privilege granted by Almighty God, in view of the merits of Jesus Christ, the Savior of the human race, was preserved free from all stain of original sin.”
(Ineffabilis Deus, Pius IX; December 8, 1854)

The reason for the Immaculate Conception was because:

Mary’s immaculate flesh knitted the blessed fruit of her womb!
Our Lord: you knitted me in my mother’s womb.
(confer Psalm 139:13)

The Second Person of the Most Holy Trinity in the Incarnation

INCARNATION and the IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Blessed Duns Scotus, the Subtle Doctor and the Doctor of Mary Immaculate, wrote about the subject “Primacy of Christ.”

GOD’S PLAN was before the creation of time. In the marvelous providence, the 2nd Person of the Trinity would become in the INCARNATION and become the Head of creation. So, we have a phrase: Primacy of Christ!

See the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) paragraphs 518, 1138 and cross-references about the mystery of recapitulation/the Primacy of Christ.

All things in heaven and on earth are united in the Lord Jesus, who is the pinnacle of all creation.

As a plan to unite all things in Jesus, things in all the Universe (see Ephesians 1:10); united in the Lord Jesus, who is the head of the body, the church and preeminent of everything (Colossians 1:18).

In the mystery of the Incarnation, the fruit of Mary’s womb was being from her Immaculate flesh.

The Holy Spirit proceeds eternally from one principle and through one spiration (CCC 246). Perhaps, another title of the Holy Spirit is: “The Original Immaculate Conception”. Mary was an incarnated Immaculate Conception. She, the Spouse of the Holy Spirit, offered herself, which the baby’s Body was incarnated from her Immaculate flesh!

GOD'S PLAN

PRIMACY of CHRIST

“GOD'S PLAN” is an article by Eusebe Menard, O.F.M. in the MSA archives (God 10).

In his library is a book titled “La Royauté univereselle du Sacré-Coeur l’Immaculée de Marie d’apres la doctrine du Bienheureux Jean Duns Scot” - Les Vox Franciscaines; P. Sigismond, OM Cap., 1925 [“The Sacred Heart’s Universal Kingship and Mary’s Immaculate Conception according the doctrine of Blessed John Duns Scotus”].

Blessed Duns Scotus, the Doctor of Mary Immaculate, wrote about the subject “Primacy of Christ.” It was not popular. Historically, the 2nd Person of the Trinity was born to redeem us from sins. So we listen to the song Exultant in the Easter Vigil Liturgy for the “happy fault.”

Scotus concluded that sin should not be necessarily for the Incarnation.

Many disagreed with Scotus and posed the question, “Why challenge his idea when in fact, sin happened?”

The Franciscan Scotist position was avoided for about 700 years. Finally in the 20th century, the Franciscans changed their opponents’ question into a declaration statement: “God’s Plan was before time. In the marvelous providence, the 2nd Person of the Trinity would become Incarnate and become the Head of creation. So, we have the Primacy of Christ!”

The diagram of GOD'S PLAN shows Mary, the Mother of God, which makes implicit Scotus' teaching about the Immaculate Conception; however, is explicitly in these pages.

PATRONO DELLA GENTE DEL MARE

Translated here:

PATRON OF THE PEOPLE OF THE SEA

The Patron of Seafarers

In 1943, Pope Pius XII issued a decree declaring St. Francis of Paola the patron saint for "...Universities charged with the care of the Maritime People, of navigation, of shipping companies, and all ships of the Italian Kingdom."

Today, we share with you Pope Pius's decree and an excerpt from his biography when he sailed on his staff to Sicily.

For perpetual remembrance. — That, by various opportunities, patronages of saints are granted to Orders and associations of Christian society, and since the faithful are urged to beg assistance from God in their needs confidently through the intercession of the heavenly ones, it also seems fitting to Us, for the spiritual good of Italy's seafarers, to grant them a special heavenly Patron — a thing to which they recently and earnestly petitioned Us by their prayers.

For We have learned how clearly, with faith, the confraternities and associations entrusted with the cares of the maritime people and all the societies of navigation and of ships under Italian rule have most earnestly entreated Us that We be pleased to establish Saint Francis of Paola as their heavenly Patron before God; and these same pleas have been reinforced by urgent words from the Princes of the House of Savoy and the Cardinal Archbishop of Genoa of the Holy Roman Church, by either the Military Archbishop for Italy or the Ordinary or the Vicar General of the Order of Minims, and finally by the civil rulers of Italy with their most ample votes.

For Saint Francis of Paola, Confessor, who was the founder of the Order of Minims and famed for virtues and miracles, was enrolled among the saints by Our predecessor Pius XII [note: should be Leo XII? — see original; here text says "Decessore Nostro Leone Pp. decimo"], has long been venerated with great devotion by the maritime people of Italy, since the life of that Wonderworker itself is filled with marvels performed at sea and is often full of benefits for sailors; and afterwards navigators invoked him and experienced the powerful protection of that same Saint against perils, as may especially be gathered from the votive gifts themselves with which the Genoese temple-sanctuary, known to all from the Tyrrhenian coasts and solemnly blessed a few years ago because of its "bell of the sea," is adorned.

Therefore, since it seems fitting to Us on this very day, namely the sixth day before the Kalends of April — on which day in the year of salvation 1416 that same Wonderworker was born in Calabria — to accede to those petitions, and having heard Our Venerable Brother Cardinal Bishop of Palestrina, Prefect of the Sacred Congregation of Rites, by the tenor of these present Letters and by the fullness of Our Apostolic power and forevermore, we willingly and of our own accord establish and confirm Saint Francis of Paola, Confessor, as the special heavenly Patron before God of the universities entrusted with the cares of the maritime people, of the societies of navigation, and of all the shipping of the Kingdom of Italy.

All things to the contrary notwithstanding. We graciously decree these things, ordering that these present Letters shall be firm, valid and effective and shall remain so perpetually; that they shall attain and obtain their full and entire effect; and that they shall fully assist those to whom they pertain or may pertain, now and in the future; and that thus they shall be judged and defined as valid and that whatever to the contrary any person, knowingly or ignorantly, may attempt shall be from now on null and void.

Given at Rome at Saint Peter's, under the Fisherman's Ring, the 26th day of the month of March, in the year 1943, the fifth of Our Pontificate.
