INTRODUCTION

The CONQUERING HEART

“Vincent” is a masculine given name. In Latin it is: Vincentius.

A verb in Latin its infinitive form is vincere. Its mean is: “to conquer”.

In grammatical in Latin, of the verb vincere, in the third plural person, future tense, rendered the word, “vincent”, which means: “they will conquer”.

The CONQUERING HEART:

St. Augustine of Hippo wrote about St. Vincent of Saragossa and with Jesus:

“Vincent conquered in him, who conquered the world”.

(Sermo 276, 1-2: Patristica Latina 38, 1256)

The front cover is a chalice pall.

A pall is: a square of linen usually stiffened, which is used to cover the cup section of a chalice. This pall was covered with a needlepoint art.

THE CROSS:

The Cross is a symbol of the power of it to restore a peaceful relationship between humanity and their Creator.

THE GALAXY:

“Stars of heaven, bless the Lord; praise and exalt him above all forever” (Daniel 3:63).

THE HEART:

As it is described in various ways.

- The Catechism of the Catholic Church has hundreds cites of it. See this one:
Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God (Mt 5:8).
 - See the article Heart of Christ’s Mystical Body. It is in the book: The Mercy Ocean.

The CONQUERING HEART

is a:

collection of works,
constellation of stars,
thoughts

that is helpful to many because:

“Vincent conquered in him, who conquered the world”.

* * * * *

The description is in its Introduction, where is only in words.

* * * * *

As was wrote:

“Vincent conquered in him, who conquered the world”.

Again, “Vincent” in Latin means “they will conquer”.

Who is the “they”?

You?

The

is when a person is in “good standing” / state of grace
is one of the
“they” will conquer.

So one of the “THEY” is being a partaker of the divine nature.
Confer the Catechism of the Catholic Church, paragraph 460, and
“you may come to share in the divine nature” (2 Peter 1:4).

In the next page is a brief introduction of the writing:

Again with a poetic license:
We are midst in the mist

YOU / ST JAW.

ST JAW reflects the Heart of Christ's Mystical Body, which is beating from the great cloud of witnesses.
(confer Hebrews 12:1).

The EUCHARISTIC
HEART of CHRIST'S MYSTICAL BODY

FOR THIS IS MY BODY,
THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD,
DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME.¹

The Sacrament of the Eucharist is a sign and cause of the unity of Christ's Mystical Body ... For there is only one flesh of Our Lord Jesus Christ, and only one chalice unto the union of His blood.²

Jesus said: In the Blessed Sacrament, My Heart, which is full of mercy.³

The heart of Mary is like the Heart of her Son in all things.⁴

Love is the "heart" of Christ's Mystical Body.⁵

When we are in the state of grace, then we are partakers of the Heart of Christ's Mystical Body.⁶

APPENDIX I

The original needlepoint of Conquering Heart
was without the Star of David / the Creator's Star.

Some reasons to add that star is here:
The following is from the article: Canticle of the Creation.
and add the spirit of the article Conquering Heart to be a symbol of the Creator's Star / Star of David to represent to unite humanity to conquer through, with, and in Whom conquered the world.

Canticle of the Creation* has implicitly a cluster of stars.

The Canticle of the Creation Prayer was first published in the CANTICLE of the CREATION.

In it described a cluster / group of six stars.

They were named as this:

- The Creator's Star / the Star of Creation / the Star of David;
- the Star of Jacob (Num. 24:17);
- the Child's Star over the silent night in Bethlehem (cf. Mt. 2:2,10);
- Our Lady, the Star of the Sea points her Son ...
- you shine like stars in the world (cf. Phil. 2:15);
- Jesus is "the bright morning star" (Rev. 22:26).

Hopefully, consider / ponder this information because it is helpful to many:

As the ancient Star of David is a six-pointed One.
Each one of the above six stars would represent one of its points.

Furthermore, in the Star of David contains six large equilateral triangles,
and six smaller equilateral triangles,
would represent the six stars in the cluster.

Here is a prayer with a reference of Star of David / the Creator's Star as being a symbol.

CANTICLE of the CREATION PRAYER:

It is offered as a symbol of humanity's unification through, with, and in all ways and always to
G*d of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob,
the universe's
Creator.

Amen.
