

SEAS

SAINT ELIZABETH ANN SETON, Patroness of the Sea Services,
pray for us.

A Description of SEAS:

Hopefully, God's plan inspired this author linked these words

Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

in her special relationship with seas.

The stain glass is in the Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland.

Part of its description is in the right lower section in the window. In the top right corner has a larger sailing ship. Below it, in the water is the name USS CYANE.

Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton and the Navy

The book The Mercy Ocean has a page about her link with the Navy.

Her second son, Richard, was the clerk of the Captain of the USS Cyane.

Her first son was also in the Navy.
