SEAS

Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

Patroness of the Sea Services, pray for us.

A Description of: SEAS

Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

has a special relationship with seas.

This stained glass is in the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland.

Part of its description is itself in the right lower section in the window. In the top right corner of the seascape has a larger sailing ship. Below it, in the water is wrote: USS CYANE.

The Mercy Ocean book has a page with its title: THE NAVY LINK. The saint's sons were members of that sea service.

William, her first son was a lieutenant in the Navy.

Her second son, Richard, was the clerk of the Captain of the USS Cyane.

Both served, in different times, on the USS Cyane.
